PROGRAM OUTLINE

- Participation is voluntary and begins with a guilty plea
- Program is divided into 5 phases, and is a minimum of 420 days
- Alcohol and drug testing is a major component of the program
- Supervision is provided pursuant to the court ordered conditions
- Treatment is provided for Chemical Dependency and Mental Health needs, as warranted by evidenced-based, individual assessments
- Incentives and sanctions are determined on a case-by-case basis
- Participants are monitored by a team and make regular court appearances in front of a Judge throughout the program
- Participants are ordered to pay all fees as imposed by individual court orders

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Brookings County Drug & DUI Court is designed for persons whose problems are rooted in substance abuse. Since an individual enters this intensely-supervised program voluntarily, they must be motivated to work toward changing their lifestyle and becoming free of alcohol and chemical addiction. The program is accessible regardless of age, religion, sex, ethnic origin, sexual preference, marital status, or physical and/or mental disability.

Brookings County Drug & DUI Court is a court-managed, intervention treatment program, designed to provide a cost-effective alternative to traditional criminal case processing. If clients are eligible and have been chosen to participate in this program, they must be willing to commit to the entire program. The program takes a minimum of 420 days to successfully complete. At any time during participation in the program, the client can be terminated from the program, returned to Circuit Court and the imposition of a traditional sentence.
